The famous curse of the parish priest of Masullas.

Edited by Maria Farranca.

The excommunication of Priest Antioco VII.

Beware of Beelzebub: fear Lucifer, who has claws and a tail of steel, and the horrors of hell.

Oh my God!
You don't even know that hell exists,
you aren't even afraid
of that beast, Lucifer!
Can't you see him in the painting holding a pitchfork
with a tail of steel
and vulture's claws?
Beware the Beast,
with twisted horns
and donkey's hooves,
riding on the back of the serpent
with seven heads,
not to mention the scorpions,
vipers and grass snakes
there are plenty of them.
And tigers and lions
how many there are!
Such barbarity!
What on earth is this game
the little devil is playing:
into the female sex
he pours molten lead;
into the male sex
he thrusts a drill bit
that passes through his back and emerges from his ass.
Ah, one must tremble
and pray
as if one were a worm.
